

Distinguished Alumni

Pamela Rohring - Class of 1985

- 2001 – Masters in Deaf Education, Canisius College
- 1991 – Bachelor of Arts, Biology, Gallaudet University
- Current Sign Language Educator at St. Mary's School for the Deaf
- ASL Instructor for various local colleges
- Current St. Mary's School for the Deaf Volleyball Coach
- Former Biological Aide at the National Institute of Health, Maryland
- President and past Secretary of the St. Mary's School for the Deaf Alumni Association
- Board of Directors Member at WNY Deaf Adult Services
- Involved in various Deaf organizations in Western New York
- 2008 – Inducted into Sports Hall of Fame at St. Mary's School for the Deaf
- 2005 – National Disabilities Employee Awareness Award
- 2004 – Honored at St. Mary's School for the Deaf 150th Anniversary Celebration Gala
- 2001 – Award Winning Preservice Teacher Products: Honorable Mention
- Published Co-Author of "Handbook to Service the Deaf and Hard of Hearing People – A Bridge to Accessibility"
- Has conducted many workshops and presentations at the local, regional and state levels on deaf culture, ASL, and more