

Distinguished Alumni

Steve Nover, Ph.D. – Class of 1973

- 2000 - Doctorate in Language, Reading & Culture, University of Arizona
- 1990 - Masters in Education Administration, California State University, Northridge, CA
- 1978 – Bachelor of Arts in Psychology, Gallaudet University
- Director of Language Planning Institute at Gallaudet University
- Director of Center of ASL/English Bilingual Education & Research at New Mexico School for the Deaf (CAEBER) & Project Director of ASL/English Bilingual Professional Development (AEBPD) involving 35 schools for the Deaf and 8 universities of Deaf Education Preparation Programs.
- Coordinator and instructor in various ASL/Deaf Studies courses at Boston University and University of Arizona in Tucson, AZ
- Executive Director of Massachusetts State Association of the Deaf
- Strong national leadership in developing projects and grants related to ASL/English Bilingual Education & Research
- Married to a deaf woman (Jill Naumann) and has a deaf daughter and hearing son